United in Prayer Across the Division

(Adventist News- General Conference)

Leaders offered prayers of thanksgiving, repentance, empowerment, unity in mission, a passion for the work, and the Holy Spirit’s equipping to carry out God’s mission through 2025 and beyond. Leaders asked for the Holy Spirit’s power to proclaim His Word and noted that to be filled with His Spirit, “we must first be emptied of self and sin.”

Victoria Filipino Canadian Seventh-day Adventist Church

Meets every Sabbath at

877 North Park Street, Victoria, BC

Seventh-day Adventists accept the Bible as the only source of our beliefs. We consider our movement to be the result of the Protestant conviction Sola Scriptura—the Bible as the only standard of faith and practice for Christians. Jesus left His followers with an epic mission: tell the world of His love and His promise to return. We love people the way He loves them.

Prayer Blanket

Just as God's love binds us together in His grace, so too can a prayer blanket serve as a beautiful symbol of our interconnectedness through prayer. We are reminded in Ecclesiastes 4:12, "Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken." As you use this prayer blanket, consider incorporating a special practice: tie a strand each time you pray with or for someone, symbolizing the lasting bond of those prayers. This practice not only enhances your personal prayer life but also strengthens your connections with others, serving as a reminder of the power of communal prayer.

If you want a Prayer Blanket, please connect with Jane Garzon...
