Faith in the Impossible | Adventist Review

Abraham believed in God's resurrection power even before it was demonstrated on earth, despite God not explicitly promising to resurrect Isaac. Furthermore, Abraham had to wrestle with the possibility that Isaac would not be raised from the dead until after Abraham's death, meaning he wouldn't see him again until eternity.

"Whatever challenges we may be facing, we can have faith in the promises of God. He always provides."

Meets every Sabbath at

877 North Park Street, Victoria, BC

Seventh-day Adventists accept the Bible as the only source of our beliefs. We consider our movement to be the result of the Protestant conviction Sola Scriptura—the Bible as the only standard of faith and practice for Christians. Jesus left His followers with an epic mission: tell the world of His love and His promise to return. We love people the way He loves them.
